

Cornerstone Chilean Mission

Mike and Tabi Boyce

Mike's 2013

Ministries

Local Congregation

- Preaching
- Sunday School
- Discipleship
- Eldership

Cornerstone Chilean Mission

Classes

- Hermeneutics
- Basic doctrine
- Revelation (new this year)
- Restoration Movement History (new this year)

Other

- Radio program
- Regional ministers meetings
- National ministers' retreat

Personal

- Moved from an apartment to a house. Favorite part— painting trees onto the wall.
- Strangest new food: guinea pig (in Ecuador)
- Also tasted: sanguche potito, barnacles, horse meat
- Went camping in a tent for the first time ever!
- Started meeting with a friend to start a business: a coffee house. We're very excited about this!

Tabi's 2013

Ministries

- Music ministry at church
- Breakfast at church
- Theology blog for Spanish-speaking community
- Videos
- Radio program

Cornerstone Chilean Mission

Travel

- Ecuador (Quito, Otavalo, Píjal)
- Calbuco
- Huilo-Huilo
- Siete Tazas
- Puerto Varas/Chiloé

Travel

- Calbuco
- Huilo-Huilo
- Siete Tazas
- Puerto Varas/Chiloé

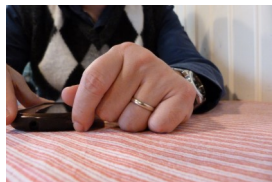

Changed houses, first time living in a house!

Strangest new food tried—sanguiche de potito (rectum sandwich); not as bad as it sounds

Also tried and liked— curanto with barnacles, ajjaco (meat and potato stew), fish egg sac, watermelon with toasted wheat, different varieties of maté, and ground horse meat.

Seven years married.

Four years in Chile.
Also, first full calendar year that I haven't left Chile.

First tent camping trip with Tabi.

First baptism in icy cold water.

Obtained Chilean health insurance.

Also, opened a Roth IRA for retirement planning.

Applied for Permanent Residency in June. No answer yet.

